EARLY HISTORY OF WEST AUSTRALIAN CASTELLORIZIAN

The first Castellorizian to arrive in Perth was Athanasios Auguste, a 14 year-old boy who fled his island home in 1884 after an assault on a Turkish official. He worked as a laborer with the Suez Canal Authority for four years and determined to take one of the south-bound ships to distant Australia. He landed in Broome, via Singapore, in 1888, worked in the pearling industry, tripped around the bush and reached Perth in 1895, where he later founded the old oyster beds restaurant on the Swan River at East Fremantle.

THE GREEK PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION

Special Annual General Meeting

A Special Annual General Meeting will be held on 16th April, 1987 at 'The Grierson' 17 Andrew Street, East Melbourne at 8.0p.m.

Many of our Members belong to the G.P.A. and this is an important Meeting in view of the serious problems the current Committee is having. The official reason given by the President for calling a Meeting is as follows -

"In view of the many resignations from the committee of the Greek Australian Professionals Association on account of Professional pressures which prevented them from devoting the necessary time to the Association, it is desirable to hold early elections."

Panagiota Andropoulos
Acting President

CASTELLORIZIAN NEWSLETTER

It is interesting to note that the Castellorizian Newsletter of our Victorian Society is now translated into Greek and printed under the Title 'News from Melbourne' in the 'Voice of Castellorizo' printed in "Rhodes" and circulated to all Castellorizian Communities world wide. Editor of 'The Voice of Castellorizo' is Kyriakos M. Hondros. Some recognition by the Voice of Castellorizo to our Society in their Newspaper I am sure would be appreciated by us all.
