Newsletter No. 62 June, 1989

The Castellorizian Newsletter No. 62 gives details of our St. Constantine and Helens Day function at our Club Rooms and a very impressive Church Service which was held at Barry Street South Yarra.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT

A very successful function was held at our Club Rooms on Sunday May 21st, 1989.

The Church Service was highlighted by an excellent talk on Castellorizo by Mr. Peter Jasonidis. Peter is the principal of the Greek School at St. Constantine and Helens Church.

We thank Peter for his well researched, talk on Castellorizians since their arrival in Australia and their religious and Greek beliefs. Present also was Mr. Nick Malaxos President of the New South Wales Castellorizian Society. We welcome Nick and thank him for his kind words at our luncheon at Dorcas Street. Thanks also to John Basil Salvaris for his talk on the history of the building of St. Constantine and Helens Church on Castellorizo. Also present at our function from Sydney Mrs. Xenia Kranitis daughter of Steve and Renee Adgemis. The Board of Directors entertained Mr. Malaxos at a very pleasant evening held at the Aegean Tavern Fitzroy on Friday May 26th, 1989.

At the May Committee Meeting held at our Club Room the Board welcomed Mr. Jim Paltos and we thank him for his expert advice and support for our re building programme.

-----

We print the following sent to us by his proud parents Tony and Rosa Stabelos - "Congratulations to Dr. George A. Stabelos who graduated at the University of Melbourne on Thursday May 18th with a 'Bachelor of Applied Science (Chiropractic)' He was honoured by the Australian Chiropractors at the Graduation Dinner at Le Chateau as the Graduate of the Year 1989 and also with the Thomas Bergman Award for Academic Excellence in the Diagnostic Sciences. He is continuing studies with a Graduate Diploma in the Field of Exercise and Sport Sciences.
