YOUTH FUNCTION

A very successful Youth Function was held at the Melbourne Town House on Saturday 16th July. This function, at which over 400 attended, was a combined effort with the youth from Eglialians, Lemnians.

We congratulate the Youth Society for their excellent effort in the organising of this disco. The success of this function gives our Society food for thought. As we are all aware for many years past and present Committees have had great difficulty in organising successful functions because of the lack of numbers that the Castellorizians have in Melbourne. Functions of the future will have to be held as combined functions to make them successful. We cannot continue to live in isolation as we have for many years.

There are many Brotherhoods in similar conditions as we are, who would only be too happy to have combined functions. We have assets of considerable value yet it has not been possible to use them for the full benefit of our members. The writing is on the wall and the sooner we realise the situation the better.

This is not to say that we should not continue to maintain our Castellorizian customs or allow our Club to be destroyed; but to learn to live and appreciate others when organising functions, etc.

NEW CLUB ROOMS

The search goes on for suitable premises for the Castellorizian Society. We are at present exploring three venues.

1. ALL THREE HOUSES at the rear of our premises at Dorcas Street have now become available to purchase. We have entered into negotiations and requested a selling price which will be submitted to us in the near future.

2. We are having discussions with Mr. H. Nakliss of MASONIC HOUSE, FLINDERS STREET MELBOURNE. We have been offered a floor to use as licenced premises. A further inspection by Members of the Committee is now taking place. Details (such as rental) are still being sorted out and we will keep our Members informed.

3. RECEPTION ROOMS in High Street Ashburton are being Inspected by us and there will be further inspection at an early date.

As Members are aware, the lease of our present tenants expires in November 1983. At its last meeting your Committee had agreed to enter into negotiations with the tenants and these negotiations are proceeding. The tenants of our property have been excellent tenants, and we are fortunate that the property has been kept in such excellent condition by the company.

We are sure that Joyce, who for many years has been an active Committee Member of our Society, will carry out her duties in her usual efficient manner. The position is a challenge, as this is the first home of its type to be built in Victoria, but we are sure that Joyce will serve the Society for the aged in both a pleasant yet efficient manner.

THEO CONOS RETURNS TO LYGON STREET, CARLTON

The official opening of Theo Conos' new restaurant took place on Wednesday 20th July 1983. At 8 o'clock it was opened and is called "ILIOS" (The Sun) by the Lord Mayor of Melbourne, Cr. Gardner. The opening was attended by more Castellorizians than normally attend our own functions at Cassie House.

We print the following articles by courtesy of the Melbourne Age and the Melbourne Times.

THE AGE - "ILIOS is the poshiest Greek restaurant in town and the best looking eating house in Lygon Street. It is the result of a 25-year dream that has cost Mr. Conos $750,000 to build.

Quite an achievement for Carlton born business man whose family came from the tiny Greek island of Castellorizo. For 25 years Mr. Conos dreamt of something more than a coffee lounge. Now he has a place of which Carlton and the Greek Community can be proud."

CLAUDE FORELL.

MELBOURNE TIMES - "The culmination of a 25-year dream by owner Theo Conos was the opening of a new Greek restaurant in Lygon Street, Carlton.

In 1932 Mr. Michael Conos opened Melbourne's first Greek restaurant in Lonsdale Street, and now after 51 years, Theo Conos has opened "ILIOS" in Carlton."

We wish him luck in his new venture.

PROFILE ON MICHAEL MANGOS J.P

BORN CASTELLORIZO 1896

Michael Mangos arrived in Australia at the age of 12. He came to Australia with his uncle P. Pitsikas who was in business in Kalgoorlie W.A. His uncle had a cafe and Michael worked for him for seven years.

After seven years Michael decided to open his own shop close to the Kalgoorlie Town Hall. This shop, a fruit sweet shop, was forced to close after three months because of the outbreak of war. Soldiers from the first AIF, who had come from just outside Perth (Black Boy Hill) incited local citizens to riot and in so doing they broke all the windows and door of the non-Australian shops. The Kalgoorlie Council through the Western Australia Government, promised to pay for the losses, but no money was ever given to the victims. Michael decided to go to Perth, so in 1915 he arrived and went to work for the Manolas family at AthenaeumCafe for 30/- a week! However, after three months, Michael decided that there was more opportunity in Darwin. On arrival he went to work for the Vesty Bros. There were many Castellorizians in Darwin at the time, including Elias Boyatsis. They were employed at Vesty's and at the Catherine River, where railway lines were being constructed.

PROFILE CONT.

Most Castellorizians had come via Gaza to where they had been evacuated from Castellorizo. When contracts to Vesty had finished, Michael left for Queensland where he worked for one year as a cane and wood cutter. The work as a ganger was hard and the pay was 6 shillings for cutting and loading one ton of cane. Most farms were owned by Italians and the gangs consisted of most nationalities (Cypriots Maltese).

The cane fields were infested with snakes and also many cutters lost thumbs and fingers during the cutting. In 1919 Michael came to Melbourne and worked as a waiter in a cafe owned by the Metaxis Bros. In 1922 he returned to Castellorizo where his mother, father, sister and one brother were still living. After a short stay he, in 1922, sailed in a boat captained by Boyatsis to Port Said, accompanied by his family.

In Port Said he met and married Anastasia Amonis, best man was his brother John (1922). They left Port Said for Melbourne, a trip which took 40 days by Cargo Ship. The Amonis family was a well known Castellorizian Family, members were Rena (Paltoglou) Mina (Kanis) Elengo (Lazarakis) and Costos.

On arrival in Melbourne he and John joined his two other brothers Arthur Elefthenios, in a cafe in Clarendon Street South Melbourne. In 1924 he took over the Oriental cafe in Chapel Street Windsor, at a rental of 3 pounds a week. The shop was to be occupied by him for 47 years.

Michael Mangos had three brothers and one sister Thespina (Miriklis). Tragically Thespina was killed in a car accident in Victoria. Michael has six children - Mary (Symons) Cherry (Mastro Banayoti) Con and Chrissy (Zervos) Peter, Jack and seventeen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

His wife died in 1978. He has many memories including being appointed a Justice of the Peace in 1958. He sat regularly on the bench at Prahran for ten years. Michael was made a member of the American Grand-dad club on 3rd July 1974. His memories include one of Port Said, where he stayed in the same building with Mr. Greg Gregory, the father of the late Harry Gregory. Mrs. A. Mangos, who was a seamstress, made Mrs. H. Gregory's trousseau for her wedding!

He remembers the first Castellorizian Committee.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Michael Economides (Conos); SECRETARY: Mr. John Hatzilyiankis;
TREASURER: Mr. Steve Coufos.

He has been president of the Castellorizian Brotherhood, a member of the Greek Community Committee of Victoria and a member of The Orpheus Club.

He looks back on his early days with mixed feelings. Greeks in those days were called "Dagoes". Today as he walks down Chapel Street or at his favourite Bowling Club (Melbourne Bowling Club) where he has been a member for many years, they call him "Mate".
